In the footsteps of Jefferson – Paris and Bordeaux

Follow the footsteps of one of the United States most important Founding Fathers in Paris & Bordeaux. Re-live important episodes of young America in the making:

In Paris, you will visit the places where he truly worked at making History for his country such as the former Ministry of foreign affairs in Versailles where the treaty of America's independence was elaborated, a private chateau outside Paris which was a must in the Parisian life for numerous American travellers, the Carnavalet museum or the hotel de Salm, former home of Jefferson's friend Condorcet.

In Bordeaux, you will discover the architectural buildings he particularly liked, enjoy a private visit to 1er Grands Crus Château Lafite-Rothschild and Château Margaux. Jefferson was also a gourmet...You will attend a cooking demo in one of the most elegant restaurants for the region, taste oysters in Arcachon and finish the trip with a festive farewell dinner at a private vineyard South of Bordeaux. The perfect trip gourmet history lovers.
