American Queen

DEAR ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Immerse yourself in Southern culture and the compelling Civil War history that shaped our nation on this outstanding Mississippi River cruise. Board the American Queen—the largest and most opulent riverboat in the world—and sail to charming towns steeped in momentous history and architectural majesty.

Begin with a stay in Memphis, a vibrant city with a rich musical heritage, and encounter fascinating Civil War relics at the famed Shiloh National Military Park, one of the most secluded and best-preserved battlefields in the United States. Then board the elegant American Queen and sail to Greenville, a lovely town nestled on the banks of Lake Ferguson. Visit the delightful antique shops and intriguing museums of Vicksburg, or step back in time at the renowned Vicksburg National Military Park.

Continue to the oldest settlement on the Mississippi, Natchez, graced with stunning gardens and palatial mansions. Stroll along St. Francisville's Royal Street, the historic heart of the city, and then admire the Old State Capitol in Baton Rouge. Before concluding your journey in New Orleans, explore the impressive halls of Nottoway, the largest plantation house in the South.

Delve into the legacy of the American Civil War with lectures given by Dr. Jeffrey W. McClurken, Professor of History and American Studies and Special Assistant for Teaching, Technology, and Innovation at the University of Mary Washington; and Dr. James I. Robertson, Jr., a noted Civil War scholar and Alumni Distinguished Professor Emeritus of History at Virginia Tech.

Space is limited and sure to sell out quickly, so reserve your spot by November 16, 2016, to receive the two-night pre-cruise hotel stay as well as the $800 early booking savings per stateroom. Don't miss the opportunity to take in poignant Civil War landmarks and opulent Southern mansions with fellow alumni.
