Five-Star M.V. STAR PRIDE

February 17 to 25, 2017

- ◆ Daylight Transit through the Panama Canal
- ◆ Luxury Small Ship—only 106 Suites
- ◆ 100% Ocean-View Suites
- ◆ All Shore Excursions Included

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Few experiences can match one of the world’s most dramatic voyages, a cruise from the Pacific Ocean to the Atlantic through one of the greatest man-made wonders of the world, the ingenious Panama Canal. Having celebrated its centennial anniversary just two years ago and currently undergoing a monumental expansion doubling its capacity, this marvel of engineering and 50-mile passage through the narrow isthmus of Panama continues to astonish even today’s most veteran traveler. During a specially arranged daylight transit, experience firsthand the mighty locks that raise and lower oceangoing vessels 85 feet using no other power than the force of gravity, accomplishing in mere hours what would have taken a three-week circumnavigation of South America in years gone by.

We invite you to join us for this voyage of a lifetime featuring a narrated passage through the historic Panama Canal and to the unspoiled rainforests of Costa Rica and Panama during the best time of year. On this comprehensive itinerary, visit two UNESCO World Heritage sites along with Panama’s ancient San Blas Islands, where the Guna Indians live much as they did centuries ago. Tour acclaimed architect Frank Gehry’s only design in Latin America, Panama City’s Biodiversity Museum. Experience one of our planet’s most pristine ecosystems in the rainforests, islands and archipelagos of Panama’s and Costa Rica’s protected national parks.

This spectacular offering features the privately chartered, Five-Star M.V. STAR PRIDE, renovated and relaunched in 2014 by an award-winning cruise line and refurbished in 2016. This sophisticated small ship features only 106 Suites, six with a private furnished veranda and 36 with private French-style balcony—ideal for your own private viewing while enjoying the daylight passage through the Panama Canal. Dock in small ports of call inaccessible to larger vessels and enjoy the advantages of Five-Star small ship cruising—casually elegant ocean-view accommodations, an exclusive itinerary carefully crafted with enriching excursions led by experienced onboard naturalists and no waiting in long lines.

This is an extraordinary opportunity and an excellent value. I encourage you to book now while space is available.

Sincerely,

Marilyn W. Midyette

NATURE'S WONDERS

in the Heart of the Rainforest

Called the "coast of riches" by the Spanish conquistadors who discovered it in 1502, Costa Rica offers visitors incredibly beautiful, ecologically diverse and fascinating cultural experiences. More than 25% of the country is a national park, wildlife refuge or protected rainforest, earning Costa Rica the distinction of the greenest country in the world and the leading destination for eco-tourism. Explore lush rainforests, walk along exquisite beaches and see a stunning array of wildlife, where rare and endemic species flourish, including howler monkeys, colorful tree frogs and Costa Rica's 600 species of non-migratory birds. Costa Rica's national motto is "Pura vida!" which translates literally as "pure life" and is expressed by the optimistic, carefree spirit and the smiling faces of the ticos (Costa Rican natives) who welcome you to their spectacular landscape.

San José, Costa Rica

In the heart of the fertile Valle Central, San José, Costa Rica's vibrant capital city, possesses an eclectic mix of museums, landscaped parks, lively cafés and art galleries and an interesting fusion of architectural styles including Spanish Colonial, Moorish and Modernist.

Its National Theater is a regal Baroque edifice modeled on Milan's La Scala, with marble staircases, gilded statues and red velvet carpeting, while the National Museum exhibits impressive pre-Columbian Central American artifacts, stonework, gold jewelry and statuettes.

Manuel Antonio National Park

Experience an unparalleled diversity of wildlife in this lush tropical paradise, a captivating combination of rainforest, beaches and coral reefs, home to more than 100 species of mammals, almost 200 species of birds and various reptiles and amphibians. During a guided morning walk through this "Living Eden," expert naturalists will help you spot colorful toucans, screeching howler monkeys, camouflaged iguanas, squirrel monkeys and rare and endangered species such as the scarlet macaw and quetzal, all of which are protected by law in this natural haven.

Snorkel with rich sea life in pristine waters.

Curú National Wildlife Refuge

Unlike traditional nature reserves, Curú Wildlife Refuge, a hidden gem of the tropics, is a unique blend of sustainable agriculture, forest management and wildlife protection, encompassing five distinctive untouched habitats—including mangrove swamps and both dry and moist forests—making it the ideal place to see the intricacies of co-dependent ecosystems. Enjoy a guided walk in the morning, the best time of day to observe an abundance of wildlife including spider, howler and capuchin monkeys, white-tail deer, iguanas and more than 230 species of birds, including the scarlet macaw.

Coiba National Park, Panama

Designated a UNESCO World Heritage site, Coiba National Park and its Special Zone of Marine Protection has emerged as a rich laboratory for studying coral, mammals and plants. In addition to 69 species of fish, humpback, sperm and Cuvier's beaked whales and orca are known to migrate through the marine park's perimeter.

Isla Coiba, the largest island in Central America, is a host of terrestrial wonders—untouched rainforest, rugged headlands, pristine white-sand beaches and mangrove thickets—the perfect environment for the evolution of new and endemic subspecies and for the preservation and protection of endangered species.

Panama's Guna Indians proudly wear vibrant molas and wrap their legs with beaded winis.

Panama City

Central America's most attractive capital city was founded in 1519 by Spanish explorers and rebuilt in the late 17th century. In the UNESCO World Heritage-designated "old quarter" of Casco Antiguo, discover a charming neighborhood with cobblestone streets, a stunning 16th-century cathedral and many historic architectural edifices that remain intact.

Adjacent to the Panama Canal, the Miraflores Visitor Center provides an opportunity to see how the famous locks, which handle annually more than 70 percent of commercial shipping traffic to and from the United States, operate.

Panama City's new Biodiversity Museum, designed by architect Frank Gehry of Guggenheim fame, showcases the ecological significance of Panama's exotic flora and fauna.

The Panama Canal's stunning Gatún Lake was the world's largest man-made lake upon completion in 1913.

San Blas Islands

Located on the Caribbean side of Panama, the sun-drenched San Blas Islands are an extraordinary testament to Panama's commitment to the indigenous Guna Indians, also known as the Kuna, and their centuries-old language, customs and culture. Villagers live in typical thatched roof huts, barter or trade in fish and agricultural products and paddle dugout canoes, their main mode of transportation. Guna women continue to hand stitch traditional colorful molas (reverse appliqué panels) and wear winis, long strings of tiny beads wrapped around their forearms and legs in striking geometric patterns.

Settled in 1673, Panama City's Casco Antiguo showcases a charming blend of Spanish, French and Italian colonial architecture.

The clear turquoise waters of pristine Golfo de San Blas, populated with vibrant, untouched coral reefs and rich marine life, offer splendid opportunities for swimming and snorkeling.

Panama Canal Expansion Agua Clara Visitor Center

A multibillion dollar feat to boost the Panama Canal's capacity broke ground in 2007. At the hilltop Agua Clara Visitor Center outside Colón, enjoy panoramic views of the new longer and wider locks and the impressive Gatún Lake, the 166-square-mile artificial body of water created a century ago to feed the canal. (Agua Clara visit is departure flight time permitting.)

Costa Rica's Cloud Forests and Volcanoes Pre-Program Option

Experience a medley of Costa Rica's diverse biospheres, where a 9000-foot-tall volcano cradles a steamy, emerald green lagoon deep within a mile-wide crater and misty cloud forests shelter a dazzling array of flora and fauna. Explore the distinctive layers of the lush Arenal rainforest along a series of suspended and fixed bridges. Enjoy a soothing soak in secluded geothermal hot springs. Tour historic San José, an organic chocolate workshop and an award-winning coffee estate. Accommodations are for two nights in the ideally located HOTEL ROYAL CORIN and one night in the hacienda-style COSTA RICA MARRIOTT HOTEL SAN JOSÉ.

Dynamic Panama— The Renaissance of a City Post-Program Option

The perfect complement to Panama's man-made wonder and "the crossroads of the Americas" is an exploration of old and new Panama. Visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Panama Viejo to see the ruins of the oldest European settlement on the Pacific coast of the American continents and enjoy an architectural tour featuring modern Panama City. Cruise on the Gatún River through the rainforest to encounter Panama's indigenous Embera people. Sample ceviche, a delicious traditional Latin American fresh seafood dish. Accommodations for two nights are in the ideally located, deluxe BRISTOL PANAMA HOTEL.

The Pre- and Post-Program Options are available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

Surrounded by lush rainforest, Costa Rica's imposing Arenal Volcano entered into a resting phase in 2010.

THE PANAMA CANAL

Marvel of Human Engineering More than a Century of Passages

During a daylight passage, experience firsthand the “greatest liberty ever taken with nature,” which cuts through the Great Continental Divide, spans 50 miles and took 33 years to complete at a cost of $400 million. This historic engineering feat changed the world, opening up new channels of international trade and allowing ships to travel between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans in a fraction of the time it took to circumnavigate South America.

CROSS SECTION OF THE PANAMA CANAL

After France’s failed attempt to build a sea-level canal here in the 19th century and following the U.S. involvement in Panama’s independence, the project was turned over to the U.S. in 1903 and construction began during the presidency of Theodore Roosevelt. Among the 100,000 workers involved in the construction was French Post-Impressionist artist Paul Gauguin. When completed in 1914, the Panama Canal was considered one of the seven wonders of the modern world. Now, more than a century later, the Panama Canal is undergoing a $5.25 billion expansion, adding a wider third lane that can accommodate more than twice the cargo of the current lanes, maintaining its status as the “gateway to the world.”

Tens of thousands of workers labored and sacrificed to complete the largest engineering endeavor of the early 20th century.
